Message from the Dean Emergent Technologies & Training

Dear Students and Colleagues,

Warm greetings!

It gives me great pleasure to connect with you through this edition of our college's monthly newsletter—Pratibimb . The newsletter serves as a vibrant platform that showcases our collective achievements and campus life, while inspiring a spirit of collaboration, pride, and forward momentum within our college.

In an era defined by rapid technological innovation, our commitment as an academic community is to stay ahead of the curve by embracing emergent technologies and fostering continuous learning. At the intersection of technology and training, we are dedicated to equipping our students with the latest skills, critical thinking abilities, and hands-on experience needed to thrive in tomorrow's workplaces.

Pratibimb serves as a valuable reflection of our collective journey—spotlighting student accomplishments, training initiatives, and the steady strides we are making toward excellence. I encourage all students to stay actively engaged, make the most of the learning opportunities provided, and continue building a strong foundation for their future careers.

A heartfelt thanks to the editorial team for their efforts in curating this publication and showcasing the vibrant spirit of our institution.

Let us all continue to learn, grow, and make each month more meaningful than the last.

Prof. (Dr.) Rizwan Khan

*Dean Emergent Technologies and Training
ABESIT Group of Institutions, Ghaziabad*

Message from the Dean Student Welfare

Dear All,

I am delighted to connect with you through this edition of our e-newsletter -Pratibimb, a wonderful platform that keeps us all informed, inspired, and connected.

At the heart of our college community lies the well-being and holistic development of every student. The Student Welfare Department is committed to creating a supportive, inclusive, and nurturing environment where you can flourish academically, emotionally, and socially.

As a bridge between students and the institution's administration, addressing student needs and concerns while also promoting a positive and supportive learning environment, our goal is to ensure that every student feels valued, heard, and empowered. Remember, your well-being is the foundation of your success. Together, the Student Welfare Department and Pratibimb strive to foster a sense of belonging, resilience, and holistic development—ensuring every student feels seen, supported, and inspired. I encourage each of you to actively participate in the programs and resources available, and to look out for one another as we grow together.

Let's continue building a campus culture rooted in care, respect, and resilience.

Warm regards,

Prof(Dr.) S.K.Arya

Dean Student Welfare
