Message from the Principal Pharmacy

Dear Readers,

It gives me immense pleasure to extend my warm greetings to all students, faculty members, and stakeholders through this edition of our college newsletter. The field of pharmacy continues to evolve rapidly, and it is our collective responsibility to stay ahead by embracing innovation, research, and ethical practice.

At our institution, we are committed to nurturing competent, compassionate, and industry-ready pharmacy professionals. I commend our faculty for their continuous dedication and our students for their enthusiasm in academics, co-curricular activities, and community outreach.

As we move forward, let us strive to uphold the highest standards of professionalism and contribute meaningfully to the healthcare sector. I encourage every student to remain curious, stay committed, and make the best use of the opportunities provided.

I also encourage students to engage in community service, academic programs, and extracurricular activities that help build confidence, communication skills, and social responsibility. These qualities are essential in shaping the future of healthcare.

Let us keep striving toward innovation, professionalism, and service to society. Wishing everyone continued success.

With warm regards & best wishes,

Prof. (Dr.) Saurabh Agarwal

Message from the Head Training (CRC)

Dear Readers

I am delighted to connect with you through this newsletter. The Training Department remains committed to empowering students with the necessary technical knowledge, practical skills, and professional competencies required to excel in today's dynamic engineering landscape.

Our focus has always been on bridging the gap between academic learning and real-world application. Through structured training modules, workshops, technical sessions, and hands-on practice, we aim to prepare our students to face challenges with confidence and adaptability.

I commend our students for their enthusiasm and the faculty for their continuous support in enhancing the learning environment. With consistent effort and dedication, I am confident that our trainees will continue to uphold the values and excellence of our institute.

As we move forward, we encourage students to take full advantage of every training opportunity, develop strong problem-solving abilities, and cultivate a mindset of continuous learning. These qualities will be key to their professional growth and success.

With warm regards,

Gaurav Kansal

Head - Training (CRC)
